

MAYOR AND JAMES

'Over 90 fretting, double-stringed minutes, give or take time off for demonstrations of similar fiddle and guitar expertise and some sweetly-sung blues, standards and folk songs from Hilary James, Simon Mayor takes the mandolin from hot-licking Texas fiddle tunes through bagpipe marches and Rachmaninov in ragtime to Handel's Arrival of the Queen of Sheba played with blurry-fingered precision.'

Glasgow Herald

'Just fantastic to go and see live'

BBC Radio 3

'One of Britain's finest voices'

BBC R4

'Britain's leading hot-fingered mandolin virtuoso'

Canterbury

'Sheer Musical Brilliance.'

BBC World Service

'... left you feelin lik you were floatin on a peerie cloud somewhar.'

Shetland Times

